LEADERSHIP WICHITA FALLS

PASSIONATE LEADERS SERVING WICHITA FALLS

Founded in 1979, Leadership Wichita Falls (LWF) is a community orientation and leadership training program. Leadership Wichita Falls shares the common belief that the single most important ingredient in building a successful community is an investment in leadership.

WHAT IS LWF?

Leadership Wichita Falls runs from January to May each year. It culminates with a class project aimed at serving the community. A class of 40 future leaders of Wichita Falls will learn their leadership styles, project management, and how to work with a team. They will have experienced every facet of our community from government and public service to the needs of non-profit organizations.
