

WHAT IS THE YOUTH PROGRAM?

Since 1993, the youth of our community have enthusiastically embraced a journey that empowers each of them to realize the need for positive change and growth within our community as well as promotes their own personal growth.

Modeled after the long-standing LWF Adult Program, Youth Leadership Wichita Falls has empowered young people for over 30 years. The program proudly include students from Legacy High School and Memorial High School-embodiment the spirit of "Two Schools, One Community." Fifteen students from each campus are selected each year, creating a diverse class of 30 youth leaders.
